Accommodations

A spacious aft deck welcomes us aboard with seating for afternoon sundowners. A huge storage locker is located under the aft deck. Entering through the aft door into the salon is new Lazy Boy leather electric recline love seat and a huge flat screen TV. Also there is a counter top that has 2 opening deep freezers with temp gauges and a hidden bar/bottle storage/table. Entering the gally you will notice a brand new stainless steel GE fridge/freezer to the starboard side and new U shaped galley countertops with a new gas stove, microwave oven, toaster etc. A centerline door takes you down to the master stateroom with athwartship Island Queen Berth and to starboard a master head with huge separate shower stall and an electric fresh water toilet. Moving forward brings us to the hallway with beautiful all hand carved polynesian wood pales on the doors that show the carvers polynesian family crests. To the starboard side of the center hallway are the 90 degree curved stairs leading up to the pilothouse. Going forward down the hallway to starboard is a huge walk-in pantry with amazing shelves and loads of storage. Across the hall to the port is a spacious guest head with shower and electric toilet. Forward is the V-berth guest cabin with unbelievable head room and a doghouse with glass panels from deck that lighten it up.

The pilot house has an "underway living area" with a table, a settee and a new Captains chair with all new settee cushions and sunshades and a day bed with a TV. From the pilothouse you can enter the side decks from sliding doors on either side. The decks have high bulwarks for safety at sea and she has Paravane stabilizers controlled from the upper aft deck and a new mast and electric winch for hoisting the dinghy up to her upper aft deck cradle or anything else onboard.

she has teak parquet flooring throughout and insulated ceilings, Easy entry to the engine room with good accessibility and loads of storage space throughout the boat.
